

Conclusion of 4th year students of the Department " Space Engineering and technology " on production practice 12.02.2021

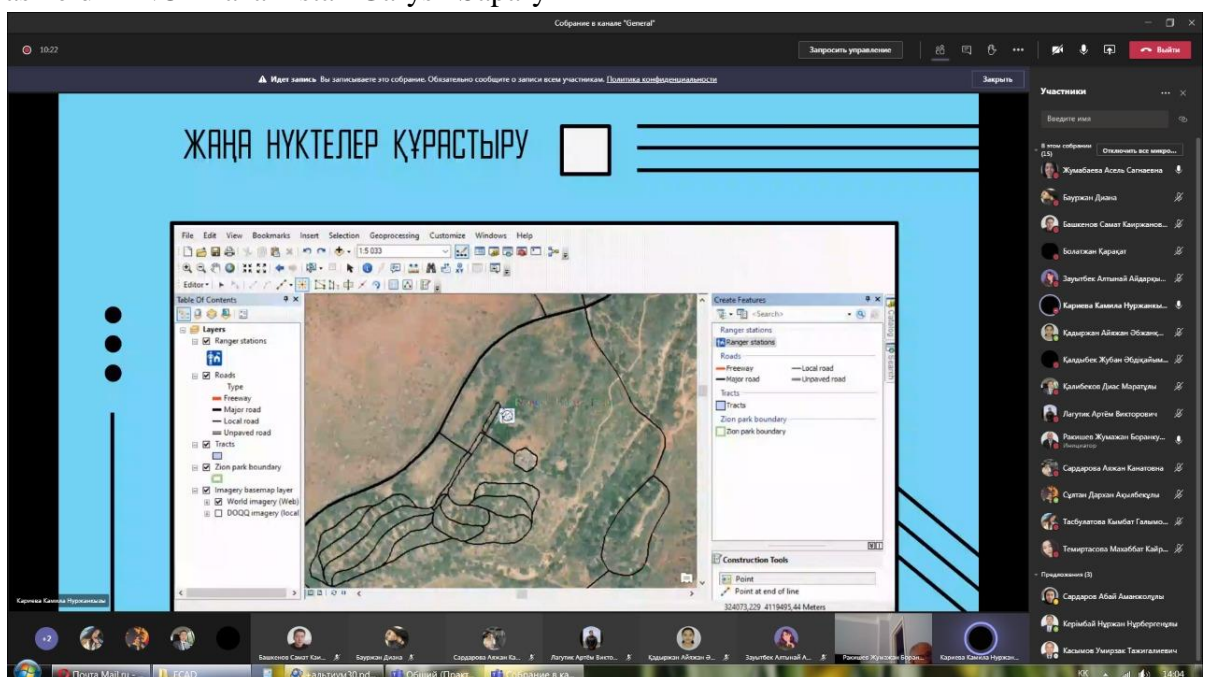

Protection of production practice reports was carried out on 11.02.2021 at 14.00 hours using video conferencing on the Microsoft Teams platform online. The conference was attended by members of the commission: Professor Kerimbay N. N., associate professor Rakishev zh. B., Senior Lecturer Zhumabayeva A. S.

Presentations of students, as well as electronic diaries-reports were presented and uploaded to individual tasks of the Platonus system and Google disk.

Zh. B. Rakishev, associate professor of the Department of " Space Engineering and technology", made a welcoming speech

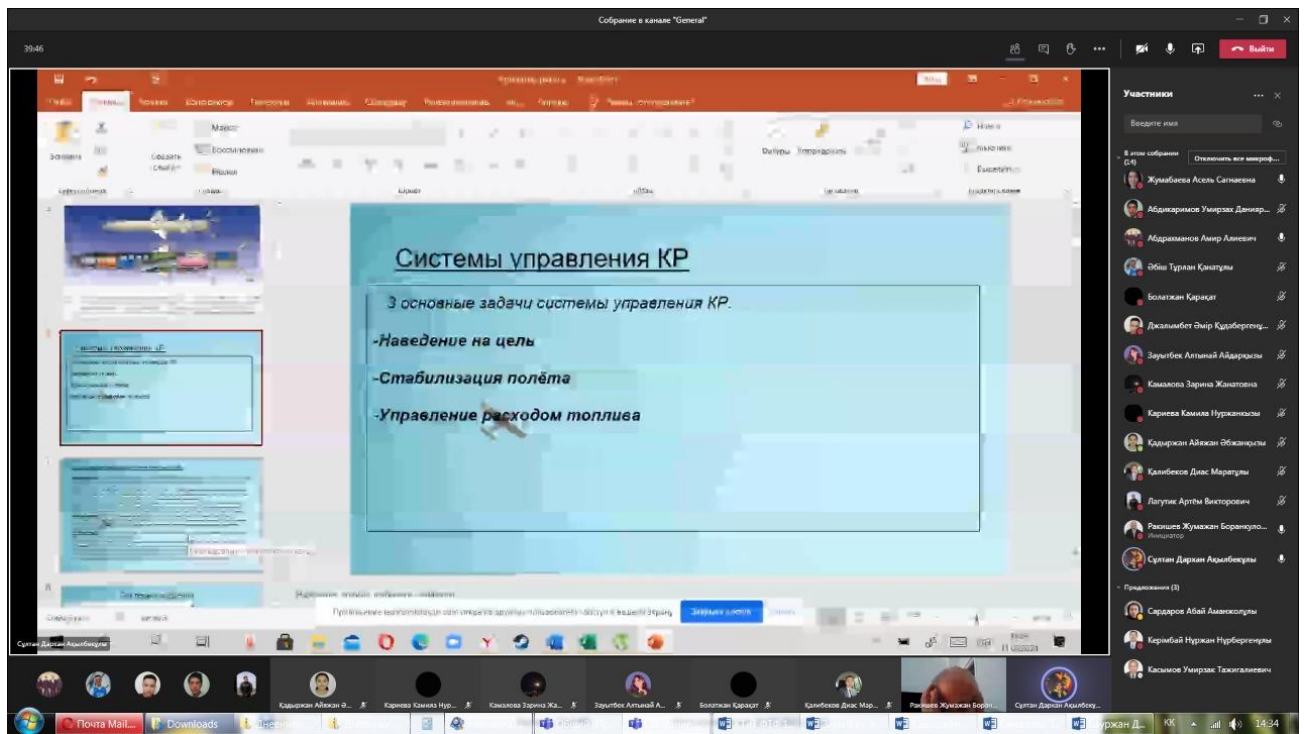

The first presentation was presented by 4th year students Zautbek Altynay, Karieva Kamila and Kamalova Zarina, who told about the format of the production practice of NC JSC "Kazakhstan Garysh Sapary", about the tasks facing them during the internship. General practice was held in NC "Kazakhstan Garysh Sapary" in an online format, but sometimes out of production, curators invited students to offline classes in compliance with all security measures to spread COVID-19 infection. The first presentation was presented by 4th year students Zautbek Altynay, Karieva Kamila and Kamalova Zarina, who told about the format of the production practice of NC JSC "Kazakhstan Garysh Sapary", about the tasks facing them during the internship. General practice was held in NC "Kazakhstan Garysh Sapary"

Sultan Darkhan, a 4th-year student, spoke next and told about the work done during the internship in an online format at the National Center for Space Research and technology JSC in Nur-Sultan.

In general, the members of the commission listened to the reports of all 4-year students and put the corresponding grades in the Platonus system.

